

COLOUR CONSULTANCY

BROCHURE

2025

It is my fundamental belief that the most successful interiors are not just a reflection of who we are, they are an extension of ourselves.

Choosing the right colours for your unique style and personality is the key to creating spaces you cherish and embrace without effort.

In short, a space that feels right for you.

Welcome

Colour affects us more than we often realise. It shapes the mood of a room, and can influence our behaviour in a space, both positively and adversely.

Harnessing and applying the powerful effects of colour can transform our interior spaces into places that feel right for us, and will support us emotionally through life's ups and downs.

Whether you're refreshing a single room or planning your whole home, the right colours do more than decorate. They bring clarity, confidence, and a sense of flow that feels built in, not added on.

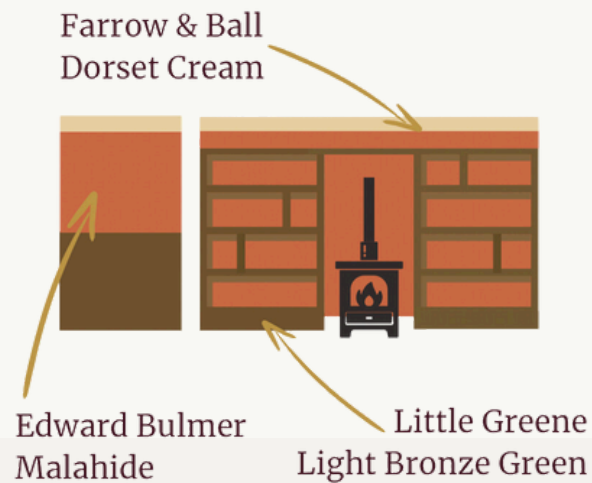

With so many paint colours now available, choosing the right one can feel impossibly weighted. After investing time, care, and money in decorating, there's nothing more disheartening than stepping back and feeling it's not quite right.

That's where colour consultancy comes in.

Independent Colour Consulting

COLOUR SCHEME

ASHLEY  ASPIN

What sets this service apart?

Consulting grounded in colour psychology and design theory, shaped entirely around you. The process is collaborative, thoughtful and practical, designed to help you make confident decisions that reflect the space you live in, the light it holds, and the life you lead.

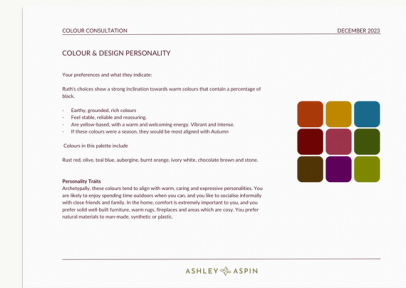

Each scheme is carefully considered, not trend-led, and paced to suit your project. No guesswork. No overwhelm. Just a home that feels right, in ways that are hard to put into words and even harder to forget once you've experienced it.

The service is proudly independent, with no commercial incentives or commissions from paint brands. This means complete freedom to really hone in on the perfect tones for you.

The Process

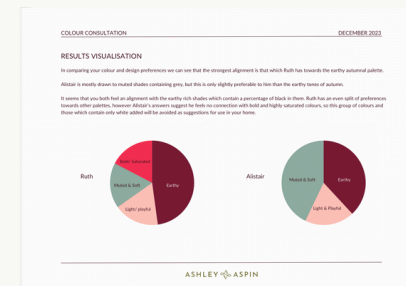

1. Understanding you & your home

Every home I design colour palettes for begins with the people who live there. You'll receive a personality-led questionnaire and a set of gentle, revealing exercises to help me understand your style, priorities, and how you want your home to feel.

2. Observing the Space

From natural light to architectural features, existing furnishings to how the room is used, we'll walk and talk through every detail that might influence the palette. This ensures the colours not only look beautiful but support the way you live.

3. Designing with intention

Drawing on everything we've explored — alongside principles of colour psychology, tonal harmony and flow, I'll create a bespoke colour design for each space. Your final scheme is delivered as a digital reference document you can return to throughout your project.

Ways to work with me

In-Home

I offer an in-home service for clients in Stockport and nearby areas. I'll visit your home, take in the space, light and layout, and create a bespoke colour plan with placement notes and finish recommendations.

If you're further afield, I'm happy to travel where time and travel costs are covered, just ask for details.

Online

Delivered via Zoom and designed for clients across the UK and beyond.

We'll talk through your space and I'll create a tailored palette based on your photos, layout and light. You'll also receive follow-up email support for any questions or tweaks.

Colour Designs for the Complete Home

A well-designed colour strategy helps your home feel calmer, more cohesive, and a pleasure to live in. You'll spend less time second-guessing decisions and more time enjoying spaces that flow beautifully from one to the next.

A clear direction tailored to your whole home, taking into account your personal preferences, the needs of the space, and those aesthetic touches that make a home feel unmistakably yours. It's a thoughtful investment that takes the pressure off decision making, and leaves you with a home that makes complete sense.

This service is also suitable for creating well-presented rentals and holiday lets, spaces which feel thoughtful, inviting, and considered, whether you live there or not.

Colour Designs – Room by Room

Whether you're renovating gradually, working around other commitments, or simply want to take things one room at a time, this service suits anyone decorating in stages. It's ideal if you've already completed part of your home and want to continue with clarity and consistency. The process remains the same: attentive, thorough, and tailored entirely to you.

Initial Consultation & First Room – £275

This stage lays the foundation with a focused consultation and full colour design for your first space. It's designed to bring clarity, confidence, and a clear direction for the rest of your home.

Room-by-Room Design – £150 per room

Following the initial consultation and first scheme, further rooms can be added at any stage. Each palette is designed to suit the space, its light and proportions, and to sit effortlessly within the flow of your home.

Hall, Stairs & Landings - from £375

The most visible and complex area in the home, a hall, stairs and landing spans multiple angles, walls and sight lines – the equivalent to designing two or even three separate rooms. If this is your starting space, the initial consultation and colour design is £450.

Colour Design for Distinctive Homes

For unique or more unusual homes with layered layouts, heritage features or multiple zones to consider, this service offers a cohesive colour strategy shaped around the architecture, flow and daily rhythm of the occupants.

Whether you're navigating interlinked reception rooms, guest suites, dual staircases or private workspaces, each scheme is developed to honour the character of the space while enhancing its atmosphere. As always, every element is considered from the way the light moves to how each room connects to the next, both visually and emotionally.

Consultations can be phased to suit the pace of your project, with every decision rooted in clarity, craftsmanship, and the way you want your home to feel.

Fees are based on the scale and scope of your home, and provided following an initial conversation.

One-to-One Online Session

A focused one-hour consultation designed to help you move forward with clarity. Whether you're stuck between colour choices, planning a tricky room, or looking for a second opinion, this session offers thoughtful, expert guidance exactly where you need it.

This is perfect for anyone who is:-

- weighing up paint options or finishes
- navigating a room with unusual light or layout
- unsure how to build on what you already have
- planning a renovation and want to avoid costly missteps
- ready for help but not a full design service

Once booked, you'll receive a preparation form to help shape the session and make the most of your time. You can share photos, questions, or anything else you'd like input on and we'll use the hour to work through it all, together.

60 minute session including preparation - £150

Lessons in Colour

Looking to inspire a group or community?

You can now book me to run a colour workshop in your own venue.

Participants will discover the secrets of colour and the powerful influence it has on our emotions and behaviour. I'll introduce the basics of colour psychology and harmony, and how to apply them in interior spaces.

You'll find out why we're drawn to certain colours (and put off by others), and explore some surprising effects of colour on everyday life. Sessions are interactive, with plenty of engaging activities, and a goodie bag to take home.

Duration: 1 hour 30 minutes (including break)

Designed for between 5 - 15 participants

About Ashley

A time-served painter and decorator with a deep love of colour and craftsmanship, I bring an invaluable insider's perspective to every project, combining creative thinking with practical know-how and trusted techniques.

I studied for several years with leading colour psychologist Karen Haller. Her Colour and Design Mentoring Programme has transformed how I work, and I'm proud to be listed as one of her Recommended Consultants.

In 2024, I was awarded membership of the Guild of Master Craftsmen in recognition of the high level of skill, service and integrity I bring to each project. I'm also listed on the Guild's "Find A Craftsman" directory.

My decorating work has been featured in The Independent, and I've contributed expert commentary to Homes & Gardens.

Based in Greater Manchester, I work with homeowners and independent businesses across the North West and beyond.

Testimonials

Ashley's attention to detail is remarkable. She is able to eliminate the superfluous but add in finer details with style and sophistication.

She knew exactly what we were seeking, and the end result is incredibly beautiful. We have a calming, luxurious and simply stunning environment that we love to work in and our customers love to be in.

We are so pleased with every aspect of Ashley's work.

From our initial meeting and discussions including great advice on colours, shades, suggestions and ideas, through to a clear quotation and very tidy work.

Brilliant to work with, on time and to an absolutely first class standard.

Jon Peach
Colour Consultation

An amazing service from start to finish.

After our initial consultation I received suggestions and ideas as to how best to complete the project.

During the work, Ashley's high attention to detail gave superb results.

It was an absolute pleasure to have her complete several projects for us and I wouldn't hesitate to recommend.

Karen Beeken
Colour Consultation

We had bought endless paint samples and repainted our living room three times, never understanding why we weren't happy with the outcome.

Enter Ashley! She was so intuitive and understood better than we did what colours we liked and what would work in our house.

She brought absolute clarity to the project. We already have two rooms we couldn't be happier with, and more on the way!
